William Lanier Ellis Jr., Julie Ann Green

On October 5, 2006 investigator(s) Dennis Greene, Stanley King and one unknown officer of the Columbia Police Dept, Detectives Division. Did unlawfully and wilfully enter the Plaintiff(s) home at 243 Haunst Rd., of William Larier Ellis Sr. and Julie Ann Green.

Upon entering the residence threatening the Plaintiff Mr. Ellis of acts of Rape and attempted Murder. Mrs. Green was not present in her person but was on the phone and sternly objects to the presence. Mr. Ellis did tell his Common Law wife whom was visiting relatives, that they had no warrant.

Mr. Ellis was taken to his bedroom stripped and searched for marks and or bruises.

Not one of the officers offered to tell Mr. Ellis upon Entering his private dwelling that he has in his power of waiving his rights upon entering.

Some 10-15 minutes upon the scene the Plaintiff's Mother Mrs. Ellis arrived. Still no warrant has been presented to Mr. Ellis.

Detective Greene, being first inside clearly seen Mr. Ellis was highly intoxicated and took a half gallon of vodka from Mr. Ellis. Furthermore with the knowledge of this its a clear violation of his fourth fifth Sixth and Eighth Amendment Rights. That the peace officer shall interrogate a suspect while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs. Mr. Ellis was also taking his prescribed pain medications, Morphine, Methadose and Xanax along with Phenobarbital.

To Show this Court of the Cold Calculating ways. The officers Stanley King, D. did allow the Plaintiff to drive his vehicle to the liquor Store. The Plaintiff Mr. Ellis had no valid tag, no valid license and two Misdemeanor Warrants against him.

The only reason to wait was to gain entry of his private dwelling. There were no exigent circumstances to allow entry to his private dwelling. The Plaintiff could legally be detained outside his home.

Furthermore, the search and seizure was a violation of the integrity of the Plaintiff's home and rights. While searching his home the officers ^{now} ~~Continued~~ openly consume Strait Vodka and made no effort to restrain him. The Main reason for this is they have no warrant.

It was more than clear by the Plaintiff's State. The home was so littered with numerous more than 50 type of Alcoholic Beverage of different sorts. Although the search of his home is in process and being interrogated Mr. Ellis still has not been advised of his rights.

In addition Officer Greene was leading the Search, Mr. Ellis's Personal Computers and E-mail was violates which are protected by federal law. These acts entitle the restoration of his fourth fifth sixth eighth and fourteenth Amendments.

With these violations in tact Officer Greene does not get a warrant signed for Mr. Ellis's arrest until February 20, 07.

However Mr. Ellis Remained incarcerated

Until February 9th in Lee County Jail. From Oct. 5 until February 9th, all this time Mr. Ellis is incarcerated and Detective Greene files Motion to interview the plaintiff, or any resolution to his arrest.

Mr. Ellis has been incarcerated since March 9th 07. Mr. Ellis has no attorney, no Discovery, no Court date its a gross violation of his due process. Mr. Ellis is entitled to Monetary damages and relief for the injustice done to him.

Mr. Ellis is not even aware of the items removed from his home. The Plaintiff wishes to apply to the State Court of a Writgating Circumstances Bond, for Medical issues. The Assistant A.T. has so advised Mr. Ellis as at 31, 07 he has no legal Counsel.

This is a manifest injustice, plain and simple.

Tommy Bassett, Signed the warrant against Mr. Ellis and is named in these proceedings, striking out The Deputy and Clergy on the signed warrant, naming him self as the Magistrate of District Court. Mr. Bassett is the Sheriff of Bassel County. Furthermore his directly to Mr. Ellis's Pending Case in the Court. 3:07-CV-920 MHT.

The Plaintiff William Larion Ellis Jr. and Julie Ann Green Come in good cause for relief to the Court and Motion to the Court for legal Counsel.

We Motion that a full investigation be done and the defendants make known th 3rd officer
